

Case construction

Set-up and model

What is the problem?
What are we talking about?

Topic AFF/NEG

Who is affected?

Points brainstorm

Do we have a mechanism?
What are the harms and benefits?

Principle

What right is important?
Who has a responsibility?

Evidence and examples

Making a point (PREP)

Point

My point is:

This is true because:

Reasons

This is important because:

Evidence

Therefore, I have proved...

Proved

Rebuttal

Use this space to take notes when the opposition is speaking or think of a point they might make!

The opposition said:

This is not true because:

This is not important because:

